CHART 1

Gross consumption of natural gas by OECD region

Total OECD indigenous production of natural gas increased by 7.9% in February 2022 compared to February 2021. All three regions experienced an increase in production on a year-on-year<sup>1</sup> basis. The OECD Americas (+8.6%, y-o-y) led the trend, followed by OECD Asia Oceania (+7.8%, y-o-y) and OECD Europe (+4.2%, y-o-y), with a positive trend despite the Netherlands (-16.4%, y-o-y) experiencing a large drop. The countries driving the increase were, by magnitude, the United States (+9.0%, y-o-y), Canada (+8.2%, y-o-y), Australia (+8.8%, y-o-y) and Norway (+8.0% y-o-y). Overall, total OECD indigenous production of natural gas increased by 5.2% on a year-to-date<sup>2</sup> basis.

Total OECD imports (entries)<sup>3</sup> of natural gas decreased by 3.4% in February 2022 compared to February 2021. OECD Asia Oceania (-18.8%, y-o-y) led the reduction of imports, mainly due to significant drops in imports from the United States (-64.8%, y-o-y) and Qatar (-49.0%, y-o-y). The OECD Americas followed the negative trend and saw a 6.4% decrease in imports y-o-y. On the other hand, OECD Europe (+2.0%, y-o-y) experienced a growth in imports, mainly due to an increase of imports from the United States (+130.0%, y-o-y), and despite a significant reduction from Belarus (-69.0%, y-o-y), Ukraine (-38.0%, y-o-y) and Russia (-8.0%, y-o-y). In terms of the split by means of transport for total OECD, there was a 7.1% decrease of pipeline imports, while LNG imports increased by 4.7%, both year-on-year.

Total OECD exports (exits)<sup>3</sup> of natural gas were 6.2% higher in February 2022 compared to the same month last year. Exports increased for both the OECD Americas (+17.5%, y-o-y) – with a large rise in exports to OECD countries (+16.0%, y-o-y) – and OECD Asia Oceania (+6.7%, y-o-y) – where most of the increase was driven by exports to non-OECD countries (+13.0%, y-o-y). OECD Europe, however, experienced a reduction in exports (-1.0%, y-o-y), in particular due to large decreases in exports from Germany (-11.0%, y-o-y) and the United Kingdom (-60.0%, y-o-y). In terms of the split, total OECD pipeline exports increased by a moderate 0.1%, while LNG exports increased by 24.4% y-o-y.

Total OECD gross consumption of natural gas decreased by 2.0% in February 2022 compared to February 2021. Even though OECD Asia Oceania (+6.9%, y-o-y) and the OECD Americas (+0.4%, y-o-y) experienced growth in gross consumption, the tightness of European gas markets and the invasion of Ukraine, implied a 9.4% reduction in OECD Europe's consumption year-on-year. The largest drops were seen in the United Kingdom (-16.6%, y-o-y), Germany (-12.1, y-o-y) and the Netherlands (-24.5%, y-o-y). Overall, total OECD gross consumption of natural gas increased by 0.3% y-t-d.

1. Year-on-year (y-o-y) change over corresponding month of previous year.

2. Year-to-date (y-t-d) change over corresponding period (beginning of year to current month) of previous year.

3. Transit volumes are included. Trade amounts include intra-regional trade.

NOTES

Please note that all IEA data are subject to the following Terms and Conditions found on the IEA's website:
<http://www.iea.org/t&c/termsandconditions/>

1) ESTIMATED DATA

Due to the absence of official data, the following data have been estimated:

Israel January 2010 to February 2022

2) COUNTRY NOTES

A General Note	Starting with January 2011 data, the Imports and Exports no longer represent ultimate origins and destinations but are replaced by Entries and Exits corresponding the amounts that physically crossed the national boundaries of the country.
Australia	The breakdown of export destinations is estimated by the IEA on the basis of OECD imports of natural gas from Australia.
Austria	Most recent data are the best estimates from the Austrian national administration, based on available preliminary data. Data are usually finalised within three months following the first publication.
Belgium	Most recent data on origins of imports and final destinations of exports of LNG are the best estimates from the Belgian Administration based on available preliminary data.
Canada	Data for Canada are submitted by the Department of Natural Resources (Natural Resources Canada, or NRCan), based on actual and preliminary data from Canada's national statistical agency (Statistics Canada) and various other sources. In cases where data from these sources are unavailable, estimates are conducted by NRCan, based on information available at the time, including alternative sources. Data are usually finalised within three months of the first publication. An important source for any differences between data published by Statistics Canada and data published by the IEA is data estimated by NRCan or the IEA Secretariat.
Iceland	There is no natural gas data for Iceland, as there is neither production nor consumption.
Israel	The statistical data for Israel are supplied by and under the responsibility of the relevant Israeli authorities. The use of such data by the OECD is without prejudice to the status of the Golan Heights, East Jerusalem and Israeli settlements in the West Bank under the terms of international law. Information is based on data published by the Ministry of Energy and Water Resources as well as the Central Bureau of Statistics.
Mexico	Observed gross inland deliveries of natural gas from January 2013 onwards are estimated.
United Kingdom	Exits to the Isle of Man are reported under Non-specified/Other.
